OEA Educational Support Professional of the Year and National Board Certified Teachers Announced

Tina Adams, Mansfield City President

At its last Board meeting, the OEA announced that Tina Adams of the Mansfield Schools Employees Association (MSEA) has been chosen as the Ohio Educational Support Professional of the Year. Tina is in her second year as President of the MSEA which includes certified as well as classified members. She has been a head cook in Mansfield for 23 years. As an ESP member, being president of such a large organization (500+ members) has offered her new challenges and opportunities.

Tina also serves on the NCOEA Executive Committee representing NCOEA on the OEA Collective Bargaining Core Function Committee.

175 teachers state wide achieved National Board Certification in 2008. Four of those are members of NCOEA. Barbara Christian from Buckeye Central, John Grant from Mansfield City, Crystal Jennings from Pioneer Career and Technology Center, and Jerry Wright from Crestview Local became a part of the 2,932 teachers in Ohio who have earned this high recognition. To get more information on the NBCT Program you may visit the website nbpts.org.

The NCOEA congratulates our local members on their achievements. If you see any of these people, be sure to congratulate them.
